

3 INJURED IN THREE-CAR CRASH FRIDAY

Three persons were injured and damage totaled more than $2,000 when three autos collided about 8:30 o'clock Friday night two-tenths of a mile east of here along the Lincoln Highway near its intersection with the Hunterstown Rd.

Injured were George J. Hippensteel, 31, Orrtanna R. 1, who had cuts of the chin and left knee; J. C. Kepner, 75, Scottsdale, Pa., who had contusions of the chest and his wife, Mrs. Emma Kepner, who had a severe cut of the forehead and contusions of the chest. All were removed to the Warner Hospital in the Gettysburg ambulance.

State police said Hippensteel and Glenn Phillips, 52, R. 4, were both driving west while Kepner was headed east.

WAS PASSING CAR

Hippensteel was in the act of passing Philip's car when his auto hit the left front of the Kepner sedan and then glanced off and struck the Phillips vehicle.

Police said the 1949 Hippensteel sedan was demolished. They estimated damage to be the rear and front of Philip's 1956 auto at $500 and to the entire left side of the Kepner car at $1,500.

Phillips' car was upset on the north side of the road. Hippensteel's auto stopped in the middle lane of the three lane highway facing northeast. Kepner's sedan came to rest in the Hunterstown Rd., at its intersection with the Lincoln Highway.

RED CROSS HAS THIRD OF GOAL; MORE TO COME

With first important returns received from solicitors in many parts of the county, the Red Cross fund campaign, which was launched early in March, has brought in $2,651.45. Campaign Chairman C. P. Keefer reported Friday afternoon.

The canvass for funds is being made in the county outside the area covered by the Gettysburg Community Chest. The goal is $8,500.

The campaign chairman, who is also chapter chairman, said he is "very much encouraged" by the way the funds are coming in from the appeal. "We know there are more donations coming from industry and we have asked solicitors to complete their canvass and make their reports as soon as possible."

9 DISTRICTS OUT

There are yet nine districts to report, he said.

With approximately half of the funds raised in the county to remain here for Red Cross services, the remainder will go to the national headquarters.

TO COORDINATE LOCAL GROUPS FOR JULY FETE

W. Clayton Jester, Biglerville, chairman of the Adams County Civil War Centennial Committee, today announced the formation of an executive committee to steer activities of approximately 80 Adams County organizations which have pledged their support to the commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg.

Members of the committee and the activities they are heading are: Luther Lady (manpower from rural organizations), C. P. Keefer (Gettysburg service organizations), Marshall Tuckey (housing), Stanley Rogers (Boy Scout activities), Mrs. Edith Riley and Mrs. Joyce Wetzel (tourist information booths), Dawson Miller (security), Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser (church activities). Keefer will also handle coordination with the Red Cross.

Jester announced further that Van Cleve Lott will assist him in the coordination of activities. The committee was proposed at a meeting called jointly by Louis M. Simon, executive secretary of the state centennial committee, and Jester. It was attended by representatives of the county organizations who want to provide the volunteer community services and assistance which will be essential in making the commemoration a success.

Church Youth To Present Program

The Youth Fellowship of the Memorial EUB Church will present a program on "Peter and the Resurrection" Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church. It will include the music of Easter and will be illustrated with a colored film showing events of Christ's life from Palm Sunday to Easter as seen by Peter.

Gene Wolf, vice president of the Youth Fellowship, will conduct the opening devotions. Narrators will include Sharon Nett, Fred Myers, Robert Beeler, Raymond Mickle and Barry Keckler.

Fellowship advisors who have assisted in preparations for the service include Miss Marian Shears, director; the Rev. and Mrs. Donald Harper, Mrs. Earl Shears, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith and Miss Connie Plitt.

TELLS WOMEN OF 3 THINGS TO BE LEADER

"It is true that any group of women who are banded together for a good purpose will do a good job; it would be silly to say anything else. It is equally true that that group would be doing good on a local basis only. The good that has been accomplished by the federation through the years throughout the world would have come to pass had each group worked purely on its own local level. The world has grown smaller; we do not make up our minds whether we are going to be interested in other nations — we have no choice. All men have become neighbors, and we must include all people of the world in our programs," Mrs. H. Everett Sanford, president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs, told members of the Adams County Federation at their spring meeting held at Dutterer's Restaurant in Littlestown Friday evening.

"I remember very well the first big club meeting that I attended; I remember nothing that was said in the way of speeches, but I do remember looking around at that group of women, all interested in the same good things, and thinking to myself, 'I am a part of all this.' I have never lost that feeling of pride."

ISSUES CHALLENGE

In speaking about membership in the various clubs of the county, Mrs. Sanford said, "I think we are not enough concerned in our clubs about whether our membership is standing still, is growing or slipping a little bit backwards. There is so much work to be done by our clubs that we

Decapitated, Mutilated Body Of Olympic Skier Is Found In Reno Apartment

By BILL STALL
RENO, Nev. (AP)—The mutilated body of a blonde former Olympic skier for Great Britain, Sonja McCaskie, 24, was found strewn about her Reno apartment Friday night.

Reno Police Chief Elmer A. Briscoe made the identification. He said Miss McCaskie had been decapitated. Briscoe said the victim's heart was on the floor two feet from the unlocked front door. Officers found a rolled blanket in the center of the room. When they unrolled it, her severed foot fell out, Briscoe reported.

BODY IN CHEST

A cedar chest in the bedroom yielded her nude body. Three kitchen knives were stuck in her torso. Beneath the body was her head, wrapped in white undergarments and a lace tablecloth.

"This is the very worst murder case we have ever had," Briscoe said. She apparently had been tortured before she was killed.

Reset Toppled Statue

Workmen from the Codori-Miller monument firm this morning replaced the nine-foot bronze statue of Gen. Warren which was toppled to the ground Tuesday night by vandals. Photographed below are Ray Funt, James Codori (kneeling) and Robert Miller. Behind Miller is Arthur Cullison. Eugene Funt operated the hydraulic lift which hoisted the 2,600-pound figure above the rock so that it could be placed in wet concrete and bolted securely to the rock. (Times photo)

HOLY NAME'S BANQUET ON APRIL 18TH

Maj. Gen. Patrick J. Ryan, retired chief of U.S. Army chaplains, will be the speaker April 18 at the third annual banquet of the Holy Name Society. The dinner will be held in Sacred Heart auditorium, Conecaw Chapel, starting at 7 p.m.

Monsignor Ryan, upon completion of his 30-year army career November 1, 1958, became executive vice president of the "Catholic Digest" magazine.

Born in Litchfield, Minn., December 3, 1902, he first became acquainted with military life while a student at St. Thomas Military Academy in St. Paul. He graduated from St. Thomas College and St. Paul's Seminary. He entered the regular Army November 6, 1928, and served as chaplain at Fort Leavenworth and Fort Riley, Kan.

HAS HONORARY DEGREES

From 1932 to 1935 he served at Fort Shafter, Hawaii, as chaplain of the 64th Coast Artillery. From 1935 to 1939 he was chaplain at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington.

Assigned as chaplain to the 3rd Infantry Division, he was with that unit when it invaded French Morocco in 1942. Later while with the 5th Army as chief of its 250 chaplains, he participated in the landing at Salerno. He became army chief of chaplains in May, 1954. He holds the Distinguished Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Bronze Star, French Legion of Honor, Brazilian Medal of War, the Order of the Crown of Italy, Italian Bronze Medal of Valor and Order of the British Empire.

He holds honorary degrees from three universities and St. Francis

COUNTRY CLUB LANE DEEDED TO TOWNSHIP

Cumberland Twp. Friday evening formally accepted Country Club Lane as part of its road system.

At a meeting of the supervisors at the home of the secretary, Lawrence Heltzel, along the Mum-basburg Rd., the Country Club Association formally turned over a deed to the road to the township. The deed calls for a 40-foot road along the eight-tenths of a mile of road leading south from the Lincoln Highway across the Country Club area.

In giving the road to the township, the association also pledged to pay up to $4,000 in repairs to put the road in perfect shape before the township begins its maintenance of the road as part of the township road system.

ON WINTER DAMAGE

Next step will be to file an announcement of the plans to take over the road with the court and then, if no objections are raised within 30 days, the road will become part of the township system.

Bids were opened at Friday's meeting for stone for road work this summer. The one bid submitted, from Teeter Stone, Inc., for $1.25 a ton for 2-A stone and screenings and $1.40 for other sizes, was accepted.

Reports at the meeting showed the township's highway crews busy making repairs on various roads damaged during the winter.

WAS DIVORCED

Miss McCaskie had been married to a Jeff Schmidt and later divorced, Briscoe said. Officers did not know Schmidt's whereabouts. They said they had no leads to a motive or suspects.

The dead girl competed in the Alpine events of the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif., about 40 miles west of Reno in the High Sierra.

Neighbors in the Southwest Reno residential area reported seeing Miss McCaskie Thursday night. She failed to show up for

GEN. WARREN STATUE RESET ON ROUND TOP

Major General Gouverneur Kemble Warren today is back on his feet atop Little Round Top.

Workmen from Codori-Miller Memorials, Gettysburg monument firm, this morning reset the nine-foot, 2,600-pound bronze statue, which was toppled to the ground Tuesday night by vandals, in concrete and bolted it securely with long pins which were drilled into the large boulder.

The only damage to the statue when it was pulled over was that the sword was loosened in the fall.

James Codori said the "pit" was cleaned of loose sand and gravel and refilled with concrete after workmen had set one 18-inch pin and two 10-inch pins deep in hot lead into the rock. The base, which is 24 by 27 inches, was set in seven inches of concrete and was securely bolted to the rock to prevent further chance of removing the figure from its base.

USE HYDRAULIC LIFT

The firm was able to move a small tractor with a hydraulic lift into the area to hoist the statue to an upright position and set it squarely onto the base. The entire operation was completed in a matter of minutes.

Aiding in the operation were Ray Funt, Robert Miller, Arthur Cullison and Codori. Eugene Funt operated the tractor and lift.

National Park Service officials said Thursday that the figure probably was pulled over with a long rope attached to an automobile in the avenue passing Little Round Top. They are continuing their investigation.

HOLD SERVICES ALL WEEK AT E.U.B. CHURCH

Passion week will be observed at the Memorial EUB Church with services every evening at 7:30 o'clock. Children will be baptized at services Palm Sunday morning and adults will be received into membership. Music will be provided by the Cecilia Choir and the pastor will speak on "Lips That Affirm, Hearts That Deny."

Sunday evening the Youth Fellowship will present its annual Easter program "Peter and the Resurrection."

In this presentation the Easter story will be told in word and music and shown on the screen. Monday evening the pastor will speak on "Royal Hands" continuing the series on the hands of Jesus which has been used this year for the Wednesday night worship services. Music will be furnished by the Chapel Choir.

Tuesday evening the music will be by the Chapel Choir and the message will be "The Magnificence of Christ." Wednesday evening the service will honor the catechumen of the church who will participate in the service. Music will be rendered by the Cecilia Choir and the pastor will present an illustrated sermon on "Where the Christian Gets His Power."

CANDLELIGHT SERVICE

The annual Holy Thursday Candlelight service of Holy Communion will be held at 7:30 p.m. with music by the Chapel Choir

COST OF CHILD CARE UP IN '62

Miss Dorothy Curtis, director of the Rural Child Welfare Unit, told 75 persons attending the annual dinner meeting Thursday evening in the Arendtsville Bank building that the cost of maintaining a child in foster homes for 1962 increased 16 cents a day for a daily cost of $2.32. She reported that 92 children were under the Child Welfare program last year.

Dr. Charles C. Glatfelter, Gettysburg College, guest speaker, recounted the problems facing residents of Gettysburg during the Civil War. Dr. Lloyd C. Keefeauver presided at the meeting.

Miss Curtis also reported that 21 new children were registered for welfare aid, and that 20 children were discharged because of age or were returned to their parents. She reported 40 children are in foster homes.

Total cost of maintaining the 92 children under the program was $65,395.94 in 1962, she said. Of this amount the unit received $1,410.70 from social security benefits; $4,052.49 from parents and relatives, and $13,883.98 from the state. The cost to the county was $46,049.77. She said that 17 youngsters are in institutions for training.

COLLEGE CHOIR SINGS SUNDAY

The Gettysburg College Choir, under the direction of Parker B. Wagnild, will sing two groups of anthems at the service in Christ Lutheran Church Sunday at 10:45 a.m. Their participation in the congregation's Palm Sunday worship continues a tradition of the last several years.

The anthems to be sung by the choir include "How Fair the Church," a chorale; "Salvation Is

Easter Seal Sale Total Near $3,000

With one week to go until the Easter Seal sale ends Easter Sunday, the sale returns have mounted to $2,990.30, it was reported today by Mrs. Harry Biesecker, Cashtown, Easter Seal chairman for the Adams County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

The sale opened early in March when more than 6,000 letters were mailed to county organizations and individuals asking them to buy seals to provide funds for the society's work this year. More funds are needed this year from the seal sale than ever before because of the therapy center the society operates at the Warner Hospital two half days a week.

The other major fund raising source for the society will be "Buck a Cup" coffee day next Thursday when wearers of special buttons will be entitled to free coffee at any of the approximately 50 participating restaurants in the county. The buttons are on sale at the restaurants for $1 each and the money goes to the Easter Seal Society.

LIBRARY GETS RENEWAL OF ITS CONTRACT

The board of directors of the Adams County Public Library Friday evening at its April meeting received a one-year renewal of its contract for continuation of the rural library services project set up here last year.

The directors spent considerable time discussing plans for the capital funds drive to be launched soon to finance an addition to the main library and hear from the architects that bids for the construction work will be advertised next week.

Dr. Harry F. Baughman, campaign chairman, and Col. Edwin H. Johnson, the campaign treasurer, met with the board.

$900 FROM "FRIENDS"

The board received a check for $900 from the Friends of the Library. The use to which it will be placed has not been determined but may be earmarked for the building program.

C. P. Keefer, former board president, was asked by the board to compile a history of the county library.

Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, the librarian, told the board National Library Week will open April 21 and plans for its observance here were discussed.

ADULT LOANS UP

Books have been given the library as memorials for Dr. John W. Albright, B. W. Hummer and Mrs. Elizabeth Hennig, Mrs. Wilson said.

AUDITORIUM IS CROWDED FOR MUSIC EVENT

More than 650 Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Graders in the Gettysburg Public Schools presented their annual music program Friday evening before a packed auditorium in the Gettysburg Junior High School building.

The "Song Favorites Through the Years" that they presented proven very popular with the more than 1,500 friends and relations that gathered to see the performance that was brightened by special stage settings or costumes—or both—from every number on the program.

The music was as American as "Arkansas Traveler" and "On Top of Old Smokey" in the Fourth Grade's repertoire and included such sure favorites as "Alexander's Rag Time Band," "Surrey With the Fringe on Top" and "It's

Rebel Naval Officers Are Surrendering in Argentina

By ISAAC A. LEVI

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—One by one rebel naval officers placed themselves under arrest today as Argentina's faltering revolution eased into its fifth day.

Nothing was heard from the four retired military men who led the revolt to oust Pres. Gen. Jose Maria Guido and stop elections. And diehard rebels vowed to continue the uprising.

But loyalist forces pressed their advantage and the end seemed only a matter of time. The loyalist high command reported the country completely under control and "peaceful and calm."

ALERT LARGE FORCE

A 25,000 man loyalist force stood ready to strike at Puerto Belgrano naval base, last stronghold of the navy rebellion, 350 miles southeast of Buenos Aires, unless the navy commanders submitted to true terms.

Fire Destroys Oyler Barn, Machinery, Auto, Cruiser, Early Today; $35,000 Loss

Fire destroyed the 40x60 foot barn on the Thomas Oyler farm, R. 3, early this morning and damaged the house adjoining. Also destroyed was thousands of dollars worth of machinery stored in the barn, a new automobile and a cabin cruiser boat. The loss has been estimated at "about $35,000."

Oyler said that two neighbors helped save his home about 150 feet from the barn. However, it was damaged to the extent of about $500.

Residents in the area said they were awakened by the sounding of an automobile horn and when they looked out the window saw the flames.

AWAKEN TENANT

Oyler said two neighbors, Dale Weikert and Thomas Hoke, whose homes are within a quarter mile of the Oyler tenant farm, ran to the building. They aroused Mrs. Frank Moran and her children. Mr. Moran, an electrical engineer, was not at home at the time, Oyler said. The Moran family has tenanted the house on the farm for about a year, according to Clyde Sell, Arendtsville fire chief.

When Weikert and Hoke arrived on the scene they saw that the home was threatened. They broke into the basement of the house, secured a garden hose and poured water against the rear and side of the house until Arendtsville firemen arrived. Chief Sell said the heat was so intense that the composition siding on the house was melting.

USE BOOSTER TANKS

Firemen used water from booster tanks to fight the blaze. The barn was beyond saving and firemen devoted their attention for two hours to prevent the blaze from spreading.

Destroyed with the barn was a $8,000 four wheel drive hydraulic

FAMILY LIVES CHEAPER HERE, WELFARE SAYS

It costs less for a family of four to live in Adams County than in a number of other counties in the state, according to the state Department of Public Welfare.

The state department has issued a report listing for each county the amount it figures is necessary for a family, including a disabled father, a moderately active mother, a daughter 13, and a son, 11, to maintain "minimum standards of health and decency," including cost of food, clothing, utilities and shelter. The state department also listed the maximum amount that it pays to such a family on public assistance.

To maintain "minimum standards," such a family of four in Adams County would need an income of $245.60 per month, the state department estimated. The maximum assistance the same family could receive in Adams County would be $157.40 or 64.1 per cent of the "minimum" estimate of the requirement.

If the same family resided in Juniata County, according to the state department, it could maintain the minimum standard with an income of $239.80 a month, and if on assistance would obtain $152.80 per month, or 62.6 per cent of what is needed. In Perry County it would cost the family $245.30 per month to live "decently" and it would receive in assistance $152.80 or 62.3 per cent.

In all other nearby counties, however, the family would find the cost of living higher: In Dauphin County the minimum amount necessary is $265, in Bucks, $275.90; in Montgomery County, $268.30; in Philadelphia County, $264.40; in Cumberland County, $261.40; in Franklin County, $255.70, and in York, $252.10.

Because of the lower cost of "living" in Adams County, those who do receive assistance are proportionately a few percentage points "better off" than their comparable neighbors on relief in most nearby counties.

RESIGNATION OF R. B. SHADE IS ACCEPTED

The resignation of Richard B. Shade, 515 Hillcrest Place, instrumental teacher and director of the band and orchestra at the senior high school was accepted Thursday by the Chambersburg Joint School Committee.

The director has been a center of controversy involving several band parents since he first assumed his duties last fall. Some parents expressed themselves for a more liberal elective music program for the students. Those who defended Shade's program pointed to his competence and experience and praised his policy of more rigid disciplines.

Expressing the latter position at this point in the meeting, Dr. Edson B. Powell, district superintendent, indicated he wasn't willing to let the resignation go on the record without some protest.

"The resignation of this very able man is simply the result of his reaction to a very few families who persisted in opposing him from the very beginning. I can't see how or why such a very few families should be able to control such things,

DEPLORES SITUATION

"Mr. Shade was a high-caliber individual. There is a weakness somewhere when such a situation can exist. We dare not permit this sort of thing. What's going to happen when the new man comes?"

"We want and need discipline here in our schools," Dr. Powell emphasized. "We don't want pupils running our departments, and then when they find they can't do so, going home and getting their parents all stirred up to cause further trouble."

The superintendent contended, "This wasn't the Band Parents' Association. The officers of the association didn't want any part of this."

Board member Homer K. Zimmerman said he felt it should also be a matter of record that the board did everything in its power to back up Shade and support his position. It was generally agreed, privately, however, some members expressed dissatisfaction with the Shade policy and showed some inclination to lean toward the protesting parents.

Shade plans to attend the graduate school of the University of Arizona to work for his doctorate in music. He is 49.

Lenten Thought For Today

No one can ponder any part of the passion of Christ without being reminded of some virtue that God asks all His followers to practice. Each scene in the tragic succession of events from Holy Thursday to Good Friday afternoon prods one to think about some important virtue, even though the price to be paid for that virtue is never so high as it was for the afflicted Son of God.

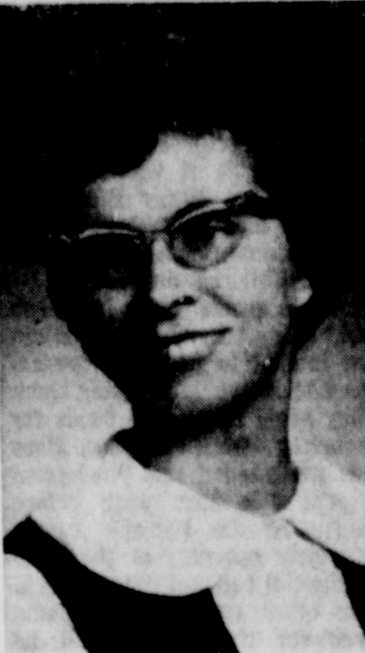

His agony in the garden with its climactic prayer, "Father, not My will but Thine be done," inspires resignation to God's will in every interior and exterior trial.

His meek and often silent acceptance of the brutal handling by His tormentors, of the lying accusations made against Him, of the unjust sentence of death, inspire shame for one's outburst of anger and resentment against others, and the strong desire to be just as patient as Christ was in the face of affronts and unkindnesses, of discomfort and annoyance experienced because of the faults of others.

So it is with every incident, minor or major, that occurred during the passion of Christ. One who recreates it in his imagination is all but forced to see in it an example or a reminder of some virtue, and to find himself almost irresistibly moved to imitate it in his daily life.

Mrs. Mary Fridinger, 24 Baltimore St., announces the engagement of her daughter, Shirley Ann, to Pfc. Curvin E. Heiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curvin H. Heiss, 17 Fifth St.

Miss Fridinger attended Gettysburg High School and is employed at the Gettysburg Shoe Factory. Her fiancé attended the same school and is now with the U. S. Army, at Fort Bragg, N. C. No date has been set for the wedding.

McKeen-Suttles

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Suttles, Harrisburg, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Constance Suttles, to Robert McKeen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell McKeen, of Haverhill, Mass.

A graduate of Central Dauphin High School, Miss Suttles is a senior at Gettysburg College. Her fiancé is a graduate of New Hampton Preparatory School for Boys, N.H., and Gettysburg College. He is a member of Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

A summer wedding is planned.

Woerner-Jacoby

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jacoby, R. 1, announce the engagement of their daughter, Irene, to Harold Woerner, son of Mr. Cover Woerner, Orrtanna R. 1.

Miss Jacoby is employed as a secretary by the Gettysburg Municipal Authority and her fiancé is engaged in fruit farming with his father.

No date has been set for the wedding.

a Grand Night for Singing."

ORCHESTRA PLAYS

The music was mostly American but there was a dash of French with "Lili Marlene" and a touch or two of Spanish. The evening climaxed with the Sixth Grader's presentation of "I Could Have Danced All Night" from "My Fair Lady" that had a tuneful dance routine in the best "Ray Bolger" style.

Between sections of the program there were selections by the 25-piece elementary school orchestra under the direction of Neil Justice. They also provided musical accompaniment for some of the stage productions.

Three "sing-along" numbers were an innovation. The Fourth Graders presented six numbers and invited the audience to join in on "Old Smokey." Seven selections were given by the Fifth Graders and they were highlighted by a "Tenting Tonight" presentation in which uniformed Civil War soldiers appeared. "Down by the Old Mill Stream" was the sing-along number there. Among the five numbers by the Sixth Grade chorus was "Surrey With the Fringe on Top" and there was a genuine surrey on the stage for the production. Five numbers by the entire Sixth Grade concluded the evening.

Before the first curtain went up at 7:30 p.m. on the two-hour show, Eisenhower Principal Paul Burkholder introduced pupils who presented a gift certificate to Richard Krick and flowers to Mrs. Elmiria Deardorff and Mrs. Betta F. Weaver, teachers in charge. Mrs. Eckhart assisted with stage sets and Mrs. Ruth Ann Palmer and James Hoke with the musical direction.

TO COMPLETE

remain unchanged, O'Connell said. The new section, to be built at an estimated cost of $220,000, will include a new loading and maneuvering platform with access to High St. The structure will be a single floor design with air conditioning and modern lighting. The interior of the present building will be changed to provide a bank-type lobby, he said. The new platform area will occupy the entire present vacant area and will extend to the rear edge of the lot against the Wentz property. Retaining walls and other necessary foundations will be constructed for the addition.

DAR CHAPTER

Man." Miss Sherry Jackson of the college sang "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" with Miss Cynthia Rosenberg as the accompanist. There were a duet, "Somebody's Darling," by Judy Singer and Joanne Leader, and "Blow, Boys Blow," James Buffenmyer, also of the college, sang "Yellow Rose of Texas" and "Tenting Tonight." The program concluded with "Beautiful Dreamer" by Sherry Jackson.

After the formal opening several letters of thanks to the chapter were read including one from the state regent for the Washington's birthday luncheon at which she was an honored guest here. There were letters of thanks also from DAR-supported schools.

GAIN NEW MEMBER

A new member was voted into the chapter and a brief memorial service was held for Mrs. S. F. Snyder, a former member who died recently. There was the usual Indian nickel collection and the magazine subscription by the chapter was extended.

A meeting of the executive board had been held before the chapter meeting and chapter members received a board recommendation that the cemetery committee continue to take care of graveyards. A new committee on lineage has been added. There were the auditors', the regent's and the national defense committee reports.

Members have been invited to take part in the annual memorial services in the cemetery of the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church on May 25.

It was announced that anyone wishing to go to the Pennsylvania luncheon Tuesday, April 16, in the Blue Room of the Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D. C., should notify Mrs. Kenneth P. Hull, 37 N. Howard Ave., the Gettysburg transportation chairman.

Dean Addresses CHM Club Friday

Dr. Charles H. Glatfelter, dean of Gettysburg College, told members of the CHM Club of the Muselman Division, Pet Milk Co., at a meeting Friday evening in the Biglerville plant cafeteria, that the Battle of Gettysburg was an unavoidable accident brought about by the unplanned meeting of the Union and Confederate forces at Gettysburg. He said that General Lee decided that if he must fight General Meade in this area he would choose the east side of South Mt. However, as the two armies maneuvered towards their planned positions they met head on in battle at Gettysburg.

Dr. Glatfelter reviewed the county's contribution to the Civil War and discussed other factors of the conflict in the county's history. The meeting was attended by 53 members of the club.

J. Forrest Kanagy, committee chairman, planned the program for the meeting of which J. Vincent Hawbecker, president, was in charge.

3,000 YOUTHS TO MEET HERE ON APRIL 27

A mass rally of more than 3,000 Pennsylvania youngsters will be held April 27 in Gettysburg as part of the "Elks National Youth Day" in Pennsylvania.

The youngsters are part of 17,000 children who will participate in programs sponsored by 113 Elks Lodges in Pennsylvania.

Highlights of the Gettysburg Battlefield visit will be the delivery of a message by "pony express" from old Fort Bedford to the Eternal Peace Light Memorial on the Battlefield. Eight pony relays will follow the old Forbes Road. The ride will be sponsored by the Bedford Elks.

May 1 has been chosen by Pennsylvania Elks as Youth Day to emphasize Americanism to youths in America. This is in contrast to the observance of communism on May Day in Iron Curtain countries.

"Elks National Youth Day" has been proclaimed for May 1 in Pennsylvania by Governor William Scranton.

Nationally and in Pennsylvania, the Elks have traditionally stressed youth activities, and virtually all Elks lodges sponsor extensive youth programs open to all youth in the lodge area. Nationally, more than 1,500,000 youth participate in phases of the Elks program annually. Their slogan is "The Youth of Today Is the Elks of Tomorrow."

Norman C. Bachelor, of the Bedford Lodge, chairman of the Pennsylvania Elks Youth program, said the young people will converge on Gettysburg, the second time since the program was inaugurated. They will tour the Battlefield, be guests at a special luncheon, see a re-enactment of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and hear an address on Americanism by a prominent person to be announced later. They will also attend a hop.

Week's Schedule For Bookmobile

The schedule for next week for Bookmobile No. 2 will take the "library on wheels" to western and northern Adams County.

The schedule follows: Tuesday, Seven Stars, 1 p.m.; McKnightstown, 1:45 p.m.; Cashtown, 3 p.m.; Orrtanna, 4:30 p.m.; and Fairfield, 6 to 8 p.m.; Wednesday, Twin Oaks, 1 p.m.; Heidlersburg, 2:15 p.m.; Guernsey, 3 p.m.; Aspers, 4:15 p.m.; and Bendersville, 6 to 8 p.m.; Thursday, Table Rock, 1 p.m.; Center Mills, 2:15 p.m.; Gardners, 3:15 p.m.; Idaville, 4:45 p.m.; Peach Glen, 6:15 p.m.; and Mt. Tabor, 7:15 to 8 p.m.; and Saturday, Mummasburg, 9 a.m.; Arendtsville, 9:45 a.m.; Flora Dale, 11:45 a.m.; and Biglerville, 1 to 4 p.m.

A change was made today in the bookmobile's schedule at Bonneauville where the half hour allotted before was found to be much too short to accommodate the many patrons that jammed the bookmobile there. The Bonneauville stop was increased to an hour and a half. The bookmobile did not go to Brushtown until 11 a.m., Mt. Pleasant at 1:15 p.m. and McSherrytown at 2:15 where it will stay until 4:15 instead of the previous 3:15 p.m.

Colored Eggs On Farmers' Market

Colored Easter eggs, watercress, dandelion and daffodils added more than a touch of spring to Farmers' Market today.

Colored eggs were offered in brilliant hues in assorted designs at 65 cents and 70 cents a dozen, and for the tiny youngsters there were colored bantam eggs at 35 cents a dozen. Dandelion and watercress were 20 cents a quart box, and daffodils were 15 cents a bunch. Pussywillows continued for the third week at 25 cents a bunch.

Scallions continued at 10 cents a bunch, picked eggs at 6 cents each and deviled eggs at 4 cents a half. Smoked sausage was 65 cents a pound.

Egg custard and fruit pies were 50 cents each, cakes were 75 cents and $1.25 each. Potatoes and apples continued at steady prices.

TELLS WOMEN

must have all the women who are interested in helping available for that help." She reported that Pennsylvania has the largest membership of any state in the General Federation.

"There is a disease going around that has affected a great many people — being adverse to accept responsibility," Mrs. Sanford challenged members of the clubs to accept positions and responsibilities offered to them: "Three things that are necessary for you to be a good leader of your club are these: For you to like people, for you to be willing to learn, and for you to have enough time to give to it. The club members are giving you the greatest gift they have to give you, the highest honor, when they ask you to be one of their leaders."

MAJOR PROJECTS

Mrs. Sanford outlined some of the major projects of the General and State Federation: The CARE and Literacy program, which is planned to help people both in the United States and abroad; the International Scholarship Program; the Community Achievement Contest; the campaign for the use of seat belts, and the Uterine Cancer Testing Program.

"Our greatest foe is apathy — people are so prone to go along and not think about unpleasant things. Under the state project of 'Project Alert! Educate!' the goal is to first educate ourselves and then by all the means of communicating we have today educate the other people."

"Are we doing the right things and doing them the right way? If we are doing something now the same way we did ten years ago, chances are we are doing it wrong. Do not wonder if the job is too big, too hard — have faith that the thing you want to do is something that you can do; that we can be of help to ourselves, our community, our world. We can influence the thinking of people — we can help in the forming or the world of tomorrow."

COMING MEETINGS

Mrs. A. Bruce Denniston, vice president of the South Central District, spoke on the district and state meetings, and urged members of the clubs to attend. She stated, "Unless we do the little things, we cannot have the success of the big things. May each one of us express our true worth in club activities."

Mrs. William A. Lentz, Gettysburg, president of the Adams County Federation, presided at the business meeting and introduced the guests. The annual reports for the clubs which make up the county federation were made by the presidents of the clubs: Mrs. Kent E. Daum for the Junior Women's Club of Littlestown; Mrs. Edward Leister for the Women's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity, and Mrs. Guile W. Leffer for the Woman's Club of Gettysburg.

Members of the Arts and Crafts Guild of Littlestown modeled hats they made under the supervision of Mrs. Bess Sedgewick of York. Those modeling hats included Mrs. Monroe J. Stavelly, Mrs. William Gingrow, Mrs. John Feaser, Mrs. Harvey Oberlander, Mrs. Ivan Rickrode, Mrs. Bernard Selby, Mrs. Glenn Flinchbaugh, Mrs. Harold Roberts, Miss Carole Flinchbaugh, Mrs. Donald Gerner, Mrs. Robert Hall and Mrs. Clyde Crouse.

LAUD FORMER ADAMS WOMAN

A former New Oxford R. 2 woman is singled out for praise for her restaurant operation in a recent edition of a Miami, Fla., newspaper.

The article appears under the heading "Who's Who in the Palmetto Area" and under the heading is a note that "this section dealing with outstanding citizens of this area is an attempt to set in print the positions these citizens occupy in the eyes of their neighbors." The top position in the section is given to Marie Gentry, the former Marie Wyatt, who with her husband, T. R. Gentry, left the New Oxford area about a year ago and purchased a restaurant in Palmetto, Fla. Two of Mrs. Gentry's sisters reside in this area, Mrs. Nancy Klinefelter, Gettysburg R. 5, and Mrs. Opal Louise Millhimes, New Oxford R. 2, and a brother, Ransom Wyatt, New Oxford.

The article about Mrs. Gentry written by Robert and Grace Bulard of the Miami paper staff states:

"A good restaurant is a vital link in the business and social cycle of any community and Palmetto area is fortunate to have Mrs. Marie Gentry in a position where she may further good public relations. A substantial citizen, her business success can mainly be attributed to her belief that good food is a most persuasive card."

"Patience Restaurant with its top notch service to the public and Marie with her unfailing courtesy and lively interest in progress will continue to draw people here from many miles around."

Professor To Speak Sunday

DR. KLAASSEN

Dr. William Klaassen, associate professor of New Testament at Mennonite Biblical Seminary, will be guest speaker at the Fairfield Mennonite Church on Sunday at the 10:45 morning worship service. At 7:30 he will speak at the Fairfield Community Lenten service in the United Church of Christ.

Dr. Klaassen attended Goshen College, Goshen College Biblical Seminary and Princeton Theological Seminary, receiving his Th.D. in 1960. Dr. Klaassen has supplied Mennonite churches in Goshen, Ind., Bally and Germantown, Pa.; and Washington, Ill.

Among his published works have been reviews in the Journal of Biblical Literature, Church History and Mennonite Quarterly Review. Pastoral Psychology and New Testament Studies have accepted his articles. He is also co-editor of the book Current Issues in New Testament Interpretation, published by Harpers in 1962.

In 1961-62, he was a recipient of a Danforth Grant for the Religion and Psychiatry program at the Menninger Foundation, Topeka, Kan., where he did a special study on forgiveness.

The morning message will be "The Prince of Peace" and "Father, Forgive Them" for the evening service. The public is invited to attend both services.

NAME JORDAN TO COMMITTEE

Adams County Home Superintendent W. E. Jordan has been named by the Department of Health to represent the 16 county homes in the central section of the state on a committee on personnel summoned to complete a study for the Commission on Aging.

Jordan was appointed by Dr. Herbert Wartman, chief of the chronic disease section, Pennsylvania Department of Health, to the central section subcommittee on personnel for the "institutional living committee" being formed in the state. The committee on which Jordan is serving is headed by Miss Mabelle Pluemacher of Bucknell University. Three separate subcommittees comprise each section of the institutional living committee. The subcommittees are personnel, service and economics.

All types of institutions are represented on the committees according to the notice to Jordan of his selection. While Jordan represents the central section county homes on the subcommittee on personnel, other members of the subcommittee represent convalescent homes, hospitals and other institutions.

The subcommittee of which Jordan is a member will present its first report Wednesday, May 8, at a meeting of the institutional living committee at Harrisburg.

TEN YEARS AGO

Not only was the Confederate army badly defeated when it invaded Gettysburg, 90 years ago, but it also overlooked a fresh batch of home-made bread that rested safely in the oven of the kitchen range on a farm now owned by President of the United States Dwight D. Eisenhower.

And why was this little story never told before?

Well, this is how we heard about it.

In the account of the death of Mrs. Mary Gertrude Norris Meheffer, of Zion, Ill., published May 18, a Wauegan newspaper stated that the deceased lived on what is known as the Eisenhower farm during the Battle of Gettysburg, and that later she and her family moved west.

Our informant advises us that this is incorrect. He says that Mr. and Mrs. Adam R. Bollinger (parents of Harvey Bollinger, N. Washington St.) and their two children, Jennie, 3, and Charles, 1, lived on that farm at that time. The property was then known as the Biessecker farm. He says Mrs. Bollinger had been ordered to bake a batch of bread by some Confederate troops and that after she placed the loaves in the oven to bake they were ordered to leave the farm because of the danger.

The Bollingers moved to the home of John Keefeauver, father of Mrs. Bollinger, who then resided on what is known as the Carbaugh farm, just beyond Round Top. (Mr. Keefeauver was a great-uncle of the superintendent of schools, Dr. Lloyd C. Keefeauver.)

Fearing that the Confederates would burn his farm buildings, Mr. Bollinger started for his former home. He was seized by some Rebel scouts who suspected him of being a spy. He told of being driven from his farm where they could verify his residence by finding his name carved on a stable door. A messenger was dispatched and upon his return Mr. Bollinger was released.

After the battle the Bollingers returned to their farm where they found their cattle missing. Their kitchen had been used as a slaughterhouse and their bed clothes had been stolen. Mrs. Bollinger found a few blankets on the battlefield but these were later reclaimed by the Northern Army. Mrs. Bollinger wondered about her bread. When she opened the oven door there was her bread untouched. It had been overlooked or forgotten by the troops who invaded her property.

Mr. Bollinger used his last $10 to buy a barrel of flour.

Miss Reigle Dies Tuesday: Miss Annie May Reigle, 79, died at her home, Gettysburg R. 4, Table Rock Rd., Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. She had been ill for the last year.

She was born in Adams County, near Littlestown, a daughter of the late Daniel P. and Cecilia (DeGroot) Reigle, and was a member of St. James Reformed Church, near Littlestown.

Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Emma Rupp, Gettysburg; Mrs. Harry Souffer, Taneytown R. D., and Miss Ida Reigle, at home.

Today's Talk

THE MAN INSIDE

We are a world of consultants. Whenever a problem comes up, we have to rush to some book, or some person, to see what it has to say, or hear what he or she has to say.

There is a little group, however, who consult the man inside — and this group comprises the leaders of the world, the rulers, the discoverers, the inventors and the engineers who build and who keep astonishing the world with their revelations of wonder.

Every man has this inner man within him — and every woman an inner woman within her heart, and just so long as this better and wiser personage is consulted, trusted, believed in, just so long will that man or woman rise, grow — and lead.

A reader of my talks wrote one day and wanted me to write a speech for him — but, if he but knew, he could have written a better speech than I ever could have, because it would have been his own! If he only had known that if he had a man inside who could have written that speech for him, he never would have thought of handing the job to another. A public speech is nothing more than one talking to a number as though that number were but a friend. That's all. The only thing that makes it different is — fear.

The name of the man inside is — confidence. His motto is — you can!

Work and more work. Practice and more practice. Failure and more failure. These are the steps that confidence teaches. And the will to do is founded upon them. We learn as we grow, or, better, we grow as we learn. And we learn only through the most exacting and bitter of experiences.

The man inside is always on the job. But if he is neglected, he falls asleep, and often never wakes up again! So keep alive, my friend. Give the man inside plenty to do by consulting him every step of the way through life.

God gave to you this man inside. Don't disappoint him!

THE PARTY

Six friends for tea, and when they came

With rapture were her eyes aflame

And rapture was the smile she wore

As they were welcomed at the door.

With beauty was the table spread,

Where many a merry word was said.

The rooms were bright as they could be.

No friend a sign of dust must see;

No friend must come and find a trace

Of preparation commonplace.

And so all day with courage stout

The little home she'd toiled about.

They praised the food as friends will do,

They laughed and sang the evening through.

They recognized and felt the grace

And beauty of her dwelling place.

But never once she let them see

That night how very tired was she.

TWO NATIONS PATROL SEAS FOR CUBANS

MIAMI, Fla. (A) — Elusive Cuban exiles kept U.S. and British forces hopping today to rid the Keys of Florida and the Bahamas of guerrillas bent on harassing Cuban prime minister Fidel Castro.

British marines combed lonely Williams Cay, 70 miles southwest of Nassau, for munitions or other supplies believed cached there by unidentified men who fled at their approach.

Reinforced air and sea units of the Miami-based Seventh Coast Guard District watched for sneak departures by innocent-looking small craft which often have proved to be carrying heavily armed anti-Castro fighters.

LOST IN DARKNESS

Nodding peacefully at a Miami dock was the 35-foot motor boat Violynn III. It arrived Friday with its crew of 17 in the windup of a cruise that started as a Cuba raid and bogged down in Bahamas detention, and a Nassau-to-Miami voyage shadowed by Coast Guard fliers—until they lost the little ship in darkness.

The only English-speaking member of the crew said the Violynn III rebuffed a Coast Guard cutter captain's demand that the raiders allow their boat to be boarded near the edge of Bahamas territorial waters. Jerry Buchanan, 24, of Miami, was quoted by his brother, Jim, newsman, as saying that Evelio Duque, commanding the Violynn III, had him reply that in no case would boarders be permitted on the little craft, but that it would obey the cutter's request to proceed toward Miami.

QUESTIONS 2 YANKS

Two U.S. citizens in the crew were questioned and released by immigration officials.

FIND SECRET NOTES OF JFK

MONTREAL (AP) — The Montreal Star says in a copy-right story that a confidential document carelessly mislaid in Ottawa in 1961 by President Kennedy's party contained marginal notes in the President's own handwriting. The document is said to have been a working paper carried to Ottawa by the U.S. party for the President's conference with Prime Minister John Diefenbaker. Previous stories have said that Diefenbaker has possession of the document but the prime minister has denied this.

The newspaper says Diefenbaker is reported to have written the President an extraordinary letter on the basis of the confidential document and it is believed the President answered Diefenbaker with one of the stiffest notes a U.S. administration has ever sent a friendly chief of state.

16,000 HEAR PEARSON RAP DIEFENBAKER

By MAX HARRELSON
TORONTO (AP) — Canada's weary political leaders plunged into the final round of their stormy election campaign today with all signs pointing toward a Liberal victory over Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker's Conservative Party.

Liberal Leader Lester B. Pearson planned to wind up with a tour of the Ottawa area where he will cast his vote in Monday's election. Diefenbaker boarded his special train for a whistle-stop swing through 11 Western Ontario towns.

16,000 AT RALLY

Pearson scored a political triumph Friday night when more than 16,000 enthusiastic supporters turned out to hear him speak in Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens. He said it was the largest political rally in Canadian history.

Pearson told the cheering crowd that his hour had come—his hour to be prime minister of Canada at the head of a strong, stable majority government.

Political observers said Pearson was at his best in the 40-minute speech, which struck hard at Diefenbaker's defense policies and his attacks on the United States. In a speech at Brantford, Ont., the prime minister called on a crowd of 1,500 to support him in Monday's election on his "Made in Canada" policy.

"Let us decide Canada's future determined in Canada," he said "and that Canadians will determine it."

"Marshal Dillon" Is Granted Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP)—James Arness, television's "Marshal Dillon," won a default divorce Friday by testifying his wife wouldn't talk to him.

The rugged actor, 39, added in Superior Court that he and his wife have been separated for five years.

He also was awarded custody of the couple's three children, charging that his wife, Virginia, 41, was not a "proper person."

The wife, however, will be allowed to visit the children on the third Wednesday of each month for four hours plus various holidays and birthdays.

Under terms of a property settlement, Arness will pay his wife 20 per cent of his gross earnings with a maximum alimony of $33,333 per year and a minimum of $18,000, until Jan. 1, 1974. After that she will receive 15 per cent unless she remarries.

Yale University President Is Ill

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Yale University President A. Whitney Griswold, who made an apparent recovery from an operation for cancer two years ago, is back in the hospital.

Officials of Yale and Grace-New Haven Hospital refused to say why Griswold was admitted Friday or to give any indication of his condition.

Buchanan told newsmen. His shipmate, Ramon Sanchez, said Duque "will keep fighting. He will fight any way possible until Cuba is free."

Buchanan and Sanchez said the Violynn III's sister ship, Omega I, was still operating "in international waters"—they wouldn't say where.

JAIL PEDDLER FOR SWINDLING AILING COUPLE

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — A

Reading peddler accused of swindling a disabled couple by claiming to have private knowledge about medical cures has been ordered held for the grand jury.

Wilburte Tobias, 44, was jailed Friday in lieu of $4,000 bond. He was arrested Thursday in Reading as he left a hospital.

Victims of the alleged swindle were Ammon Snyder, 58, who is paralyzed below the waist, and his 55-year-old wife, who suffers from arthritis. They are Mennonites and live at Ephrata R. 2.

The Snyder's told state police Tobias sold them medicines and claimed to have access to what he called a God-given herb which he said would help the Snyder's.

They told police that Tobias, from Sept. 28 to Oct. 31, 1962, made 10 or 12 trips to their home and collected payments ranging from $50 to more than $1,000.

When the Snyder's, needing money, tried to borrow from a bank—they said at Tobias' urging—bank officers were suspicious and contacted Snyder's brother, who lives in the neighborhood. This led to disclosure by the Snyder's of the scheme.

"He took every available cent of cash we had," said Mrs. Snyder, "and suggested we go to the bank and borrow more."

FUNGUS MAY BE CAUSE OF SOME CANCERS

By ALTON BLAKESLEE

Associated Press Science Writer
LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—Cancer detectives are trailing a strange new suspect—the lowly fungus—as a possible cause of some cancers.

Fungi, or molds, might contaminate some foods we eat, or even exist in some drugs, Dr. Michael B. Shimkin of the National Cancer Institute, Bethesda, Md., said Friday night.

Fungi are one of the lowest forms of life. Some are familiar as the molds on food, including green mold on bread, but that particular mold has not been implicated.

Reporting to an American Cancer Society seminar for science writers, Dr. Shimkin told of evidence involving moldy peanuts and moldy corn.

In 1960, he said, 100,000 turkeys died in England from disease "X," traced to their food.

The killer turned out to be a poison, named aflatoxin, produced by a mold or fungus contaminating peanuts in part of their food. When rats were fed large amounts of this same fungus poison, they got liver cancers.

In Africa, investigators noticed, many natives have a high rate of liver cancer. They eat and like moldy corn. So the moldy corn is being investigated as a possible cause of liver cancer.

One chemical isolated from moldy peanuts and corn is found to be a very powerful cancer-producing agent. It is 50 to 100 times more powerful in stimulating liver cancer in rats than are azo dyes, long known as a cancer agent, Dr. Shimkin said.

So researchers are wondering what effects there may be from fungus products consumed by humans in foods or even in certain antibiotics, such as the actinomycins, he said.

He emphasized these are all suspicions, and that there is no reason for people to avoid antibiotics essential in combating disease.

Bullets Victim Of Bunt In Bowling To LaSalle 4-3; Face Temple Today

A squeeze bunt which produced two runs in the last of the six innings gave LaSalle a 4-3 victory over the Gettysburg College baseball team Friday afternoon at Philadelphia as the Bullets got off to a weak start in defending their Middle-Atlantic University Division title.

The Bullets, losing their second game in as many starts, led 3-2 going into the bottom of the sixth. Dick Espenship and John Piccolo led off with singles and were advanced by Vince Sica's sacrifice bunt.

Frank Gallo laid down a bunt along the third base line but Ted Koerner fell down on fielding the bunt with Espenship and Piccolo streaking across without a play being made.

Koerner hurled the route for the Bullets and turned in a commendable performance in allowing but six hits, Tony Crone, Explorer moundsman, was even tougher in scattering four hits, two of which were secured by Jim Riccobono.

This afternoon Bob Hinds, Bullet southpaw, was scheduled to hurl against Temple. The Owls lead the University Division race with a 3-0 record.

Guides For High Corn Yield Listed By New Farm Agent

By THOMAS E. PIPER
Adams County Farm Agent

In order to know how much fertilizer is needed to produce 100 bushels of shelled corn per acre, have a complete soil test made and then follow recommendations. Soil test kits and instructions for taking a soil sample can be obtained at the county agent's office.

It pays to have a good legume-grass sod to plow down for corn. On most farms plowing down nitrogen and a complete fertilizer, along with 15-30-30 in the row, is required for good yields. Manure is also very important.

Be sure to purchase varieties of hybrid seed corn which are adapted to your farm. There are some varieties which stand thicker plant populations and are free from diseases and insects than other varieties.

Plant population at harvest should be 15,000 to 18,000 plants per acre. In order to have enough plants it is necessary to overplant 1,500 to 2,000 more kernels per acre.

Clean cultivation or chemical weed control along with one or two cultivators reduces loss in yield from weeds. Reduction in yields from weeds on some farms have run as high as 35 bushels of shelled corn per acre.

GOOD GARDEN IMPORTANT

Gardeners, like actors, can waste a lot of time and energy on a poor plot—and the results are equally disappointing. No matter how good seeds are, they don't grow into fine vegetables unless planted in a favorable location.

There are very few plots that are level, well-drained and sunny, with rich, deep friable medium loam soil, free from rocks and debris. Most garden enthusiasts have to do with something less, but there are important things to look for in planning a garden.

One of the most important is good drainage. That's because vegetable plants, and most others except specially adapted aquatic species, will drown if allowed to stand too long in water, or wet soil. Too much moisture deprives plant roots of air and nutrients needed for healthy development. So, prospective gardeners should check drainage before turning a plot into a vegetable garden. Green scum on the soil surface is one indication of excessive wetness.

Direct sunlight for at least six hours a day is necessary for leafy crops like lettuce, collards, spinach, chard and kale. Others like tomatoes, eggplant, peppers and lima beans will need more than that. Trees not only give shade, but their roots compete for moisture and nutrients.

Be sure to consider the water supply in choosing a garden location. Use a garden hose, or a few lengths of temporary piping, to insure against summer droughts.

STOP POND LEAKS

Building a pond correctly is much easier than stopping leaks after the pond begins to fill.

Bentonite is a type of clay found in some western states which is used to seal canals, irrigation ditches and farm ponds to prevent water loss through seepage. It is a fine granular material, which absorbs water and swells 10 to 15 times its original volume. When bentonite is mixed with water and soil, it forms a jelly-like layer which prevents water from seeping through the mixture.

There are several ways to use bentonite for sealing farm ponds, but perhaps the most effective is the dry-placement method.

Drain the pond, plow or disk the leaking area and remove all surface rocks and vegetable growth, explains N. Henry Wooding Jr., Penn State extension agricultural engineer. Spread the bentonite at the rate of one pound per square foot and mix it with the top four inches of dry soil either by hand-raking or harrowing with a disk. Roll and pack the treated area and let the pond refill, he points out.

Bentonite can be used effectively on most any type of porous soil, but first fill all large cracks and sink holes with a mixture of bentonite and soil before treating

AP Gears News Report To Discriminating Folk

NEW YORK (AP)—The Associated Press is gearing its news output to meet "a more discriminating, intelligent and knowledge-hungry generation," Wes Gallagher, AP general manager, said Friday in his annual report.

The worldwide news cooperative is meeting the challenge through use of new techniques, he said. "In an era where man probes the universe with missile fingers and primitive people leap turbulently into the 20th century, The Associated Press faces a task as difficult as any in its 114-year history," he said.

"TORRENT OF NEWS"

Gallagher cited "the grim nuclear diplomacy of the cold war," the hot war in Viet Nam and bloody struggles in the Congo, space exploration and segregation turmoil as illustrating the complexity and variety of modern news.

"This torrent of news required new techniques in handling and delivery which were met by a highly trained, professional staff," he said.

Gallagher's report was mailed to AP members in advance of The Associated Press annual meeting and luncheon in New York City April 22.

TECHNICAL BREAKTHROUGHS

Gallagher said breakthroughs have occurred in solving technical problems so that news and pictures can be transmitted "at a speed and with fidelity only dreamed of a few years ago."

He noted, for example, that AP's new computer, producing tape fed at 1,000-words a minute into telegraph circuits, delivers stock tables in type a few minutes after the close of markets.

"The major problems are not quantity, speed or worldwide resources, important though they are in serving the needs of more than 8,000 members and subscribers around the world," he said. "The more difficult and compelling task is to redirect our news-gathering efforts to meet a more discriminating, intelligent and knowledge-hungry generation."

LISTS ADVANCEMENTS

"We are constantly searching for new techniques, new ideas and new ways of presenting the news," Gallagher said some things that have been inaugurated in the past year with excellent response from the membership include:

AP World Spotlight, a package of five stories from overseas illuminating and explaining the news for Sunday newspapers.
AP Special Report, stories about people and places from this country and abroad for midweek afternoon newspapers.

Enterprise news and newsphoto combinations aimed at Monday morning and Monday afternoon newspapers, which are normally a large area. Bentonite is fairly expensive. For best results, it should be used according to instructions.

FAT TESTS VARY

Dairymen ask why fat tests of milk vary so much. Fat tests vary for three reasons: the sample is improperly taken (the sample should represent the whole supply); the fat test is not properly conducted; day-to-day changes in the physiology of the cow change milk constituents to some degree.

These changes in fat content occur because of breed, individuals within the breed, stage of lactation, age of cow, condition at calving time, intervals between milking, completeness of milking, weather and season of year. Miscellaneous factors such as disease, heat period, excitement and environmental changes will also effect the fat test.

ATTENTION ON TAX PIES AND COFFEE RULES

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Coffee breaks and pie charts shook up the Capitol this week.

The key phrase in both cases appeared to be "too much."

Gov. Scranton complained about too much time dribbled away by Capitol employees at coffee breaks.

Lawmakers glanced at the governor's tax pie charts. Too much.

NO CHANGE YET

The coffee splash came about because Capitol workers abused the coffee break privilege. They have abused it for 173 years of constitutional law.

The governor's edict calling for "strictest control" over the coffee break has had no discernible impact. Reports from the Capitol brew masters indicate continued record sales. Lines are as long as ever. The coffee is neither better nor worse.

So much for coffee. Let's look at that tax pie.

MOST INTERESTING

This year the tax pie chart is most interesting. In the past it always consisted of a circle, divided into wedges, each wedge representing the proportion of the total revenue raised by each of the many state taxes.

The pies of yesteryear looked somewhat like wagon wheels with a few of the spokes knocked out. Maybe that is why some of the old revenue plans broke down.

Things are different for fiscal 1963-64. The pie chart is elliptical. The wheel is turned on its side. You look at the hub (a dollar sign) from the rim.

APPEARS SHOCKING

From this perspective the portion of state taxes paid by corporations appears shockingly large. That is because the corporation wedge of the pie in the administration chart is turned toward you. Far, far away on the other side of the pie is a wedge labeled (in smaller letters) "additional revenue needed." It looks insignificant. It is only $138,253,552.

To cover that sum only a ha'penny additional sales tax is needed, says the governor. A mere 5 mills.

SEE AN ECLIPSE ROLL

Opponents claim that is a 12 1/2 per cent increase in the 4 per

Raging Flames Spurred By High Winds Crackling Through Dry Woodlands

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A torrid swath of flames, crackling through dry woodland in spots from Maine to Georgia, threatened further death and destruction today.

High winds spurred the blazes Friday, helping to level a wooden firehouse in Athens, Maine, in 15 minutes. All but one piece of mobile fire equipment was destroyed. The woodland fires have killed at least three persons in the past week and burned up hundreds of thousands of acres.

At least four other persons were killed by hurricane-force winds that toppled live wires onto one car, overturned another and blew down a building wall onto a third. In Georgia, where two men burned to death in the fight to stem about 1,000 forest fires during the week, one of the victims perished in a timber blaze that started after he ignited trash in his yard. He was Homer Carroll, 65, of Ellijay.

MAN IS BURNED

At Laurinburg, N.C., the badly burned body of Lonnie Brock, 72, was found by firemen who extinguished a brush fire near a cemetery.

In Virginia, where occasional rain was forecast to spread slowly eastward over the state, gale winds diminished to a whisper after fanning flames across some 18,000 acres of timberland. Asst. State Forester Ed Rodger described it as "almost a holocaust."

In one section of Shenandoah National Park, Va., one stubborn blaze refused to die down. It leaped fire lines and destroyed 300 more acres of timberland after ravaging some 700 acres earlier.

70,000-ACRE FIRE

One of the biggest forest fires swept more than 70,000 acres in a tri-county area near Fairfield, N.C., and continued to rage out of control. Firefighters were pulled back when they became in danger of being trapped by the swiftly moving flames.

At least two other fires also burned out of control in North Carolina, including one which sent 1,000 acres up in smoke near Bertie, and another that consumed 3,000 acres near Lenoir.

A man could break a tooth (especially a gold tooth) chewing tax pie.

Now that everyone has more or less been hit in the eye by the governor's elliptical tax pie, all he has to do is roll it through the legislature. Democrats say he has a lot of crust.

Ever see an eclipse roll?

Nielson Reports On Shopper Trend

CHICAGO (AP)—Next time you walk into a supermarket, chances are you'll spend $13.10, buy 22 items at an average price of 59.5 cents, and be a woman.

That's the report from the A. C. Nielson Co., here which uses some 2,700 persons, including 300 field auditors, and a computer to follow the purchasing preferences of the nation's shoppers.

Fewer than one-third of the shoppers visit the store once a week, and the remainder of the customers are split between those who shop twice a week and those who shop three or more times. And only 18 out of 100 supermarket patrons are men, Nielsen says.

The Cook Depth, deepest in the world, lies in the Philippine Trench, one of several steep-walled furrows that gash the Pacific floor.

INDIANS SHUN GIFTS OF FOOD AND BULLETS

LAKEWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Winnie Anders apparently thought she was dispensing charity in the best Biblical fashion: Casting bread upon the waters.

But the objects of her good works asked that Mrs. Anders send her donations elsewhere.

And now diplomatic relations have been broken off between Mrs. Anders and the 1,800 tribesmen of the Santo Domingoueblo, north of Albuquerque, N.M.

"Why, those ungrateful Indians!" snorted Mrs. Anders, chieftain of a self-appointed Lakewood women's group known as the Pueblo Indian Food Lift.

It seems the proud Santo Domingo Indians were embarrassed by shipments of food, clothing, sewing machines and rifle bullets.

VISITED PUEBLO

The women had sent them after hearing of the tribe's poverty. Mrs. Anders got the idea for shipments after meeting a Santo Domingo tribesman, who was serving with the Navy reserve in this Southern California city.

The reservist, Santiago Leo Coriz, invited Mrs. Anders and her husband George, 49, to visit his pueblo in New Mexico. They did.

When they returned, Mrs. Anders, tear in her eye, told women friend and newsmen:

"If you could each look into the hollow eyes of these children and view their little bodies, and see the despair in the eyes of the older people, I am sure you could not turn your backs on this condition."

OPEN MERCY LIFT

Thus stirred, Lakewood's womenfolk launched a massive mercy lift, and enlisted the Navy to fly supplies to New Mexico.

Meanwhile, newspaper stories of the Indians' plight filtered back to New Mexico, and prompted this letter from Diego Rosetta, governor of the pueblo:

"It has come as quite a shock to us to know that we are starving, have no clothing, have no land, live in an area comprising 10 square blocks."

While he appreciated their gesture, Rosetta added, he suggested they send future shipments to

Ministers Advise Visitor Ban To Cuba

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP)—Representatives of the Central American and U.S. governments recommended Thursday night that their citizens be kept out of Cuba by stamping their passports "Not valid for travel to Cuba."

The United States uses the same system to bar Americans from Red China.

Justice and interior ministers meeting here approved seven other recommendations for action to combat Communist infiltration from Cuba. These called for stronger crackdowns on contraband arms cooperation in patrolling coastlines, penalties for receipt or distribution of Communist propaganda, and impounding of funds that might be used for subversion.

The conference was an outgrowth of President Kennedy's meeting in San Jose, Costa Rica, with the presidents of Panama, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, El Salvador and Costa Rica.

OFFICIAL TO SAVE MILLION

HARRISBURG (AP)—Revenue Secretary Theodore B. Smith, accusing the Democrats of grossly padding the department's payroll, says he expects to return better than $1 million to the general fund by end of the current fiscal year. In a memorandum to Gov. Scranton, dated April 3, Smith wrote: "If we maintain our current economy in spending, by June 30 the department will lapse $1,075,000 back to the treasury."

Scranton made the memorandum public at his weekly news conference Thursday.

Smith said that when he assumed office last January, his department "was shot through with duplicate effort, outmoded and wasteful operating methods, a grossly padded payroll, and general inefficiency fairly screaming to be corrected."

He said he has cut the department's payroll from $17,573,929 last December to $15,759,622 as of April—a cut of more $1.8 million.

"California Indians who are in distress," he noted that "Indian people, as a rule, are poor people, but there is a difference between being poor and being in want and distress."

KILLED WITH CLUBS

If this is so, the puzzled Mrs. Anders inquired, why were Indians forced to kill rabbits with clubs? Simple, replied a pueblo spokesman, Indians consider clubs more sporting than rifles.

That ended the Santo Domingo experiment. But the women of Lakewood, still determined to dispense charity, have found another poverty-stricken group—Indians in the interior of Baja California, Mexico.

Now the rejected supplies from New Mexico will go to Old Mexico.

The next Curtis Cup golf matches between women amateurs representing the United States and Great Britain will be played September 11-12, 1964, in Portcawl, South Wales.

TELLS EDITORS 3 BRIDGES TO CROSS IN PA.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Scranton says his administration has three important bridges to cross to insure its ultimate success.

Scranton told a meeting of newspaper editors here Thursday those bridges, all of them controversial, were constitutional revision, uniform civil service and educational reforms.

The governor's address opened a three-day annual seminar on state government of the Pennsylvania Society of Newspaper Editors.

"The present constitution is outmoded for progressive government in the state," Scranton contended. "It makes it difficult for government to operate efficiently."

Speaking on civil service, Scranton said a system reaching at least $1,000 of the 82,000 state jobholders was essential in putting Pennsylvania on a par with other progressive states in this field.

ANSWERED QUESTIONS

In championing his administration's education program, Scranton said that school district reorganization was entirely feasible and that even the less populous counties could have good schools.

"If the people want to do the job," Scranton exposed himself to questions from the floor. In the course of this informal period, he commented that editorials by three newspapers which he declined to identify had influenced changes in pending legislation in the field of education.

"We don't have all the answers to all the problems," Scranton said in explanation that his administration welcomed editorial comment and discussion, whether it was critical or flattering.

Although the governor had held a weekly news conference for the "working press" of Capitol hill only a short while previously, Scranton again fielded all questions at the dinner.

REDS SEND AGITATORS

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Communist North Korea is smuggling in a large number of agents to stir up anti-government demonstrations, South Korea's military rulers charged Friday.

The military regime, beset by civilian political leaders demanding a return to civil rule, announced the arrest of three North Korean agents and an undisclosed number of South Korean youths reportedly contacted by the Communists.

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Wilbert E. Tobias, 44, of Reading, has been released in $4,000 bond awaiting grand jury action on charges of cheating by fraudulent pretense.

Tobias was arrested in Reading Thursday and accused of bilking Mr. and Mrs. Amon Snyder, an elderly couple of Ephrata Route 2, of $5,237.

State police detective William Davlin said Tobias has sold capsules and liquids to the Snyders since last September.

Abbottstown

ABBOTTSTOWN — Additional plans were made Monday night at the meeting of the fire company for the annual carnival to be held July 16-20 and reports were made on plans for the annual solicitation for funds.

A nomination committee will present slate of officers at the May meeting for election in June. Bills for the month amounted to $350, with total general receipts totaling $450. The refinancing committee reported that the relief association has provided mortgage money for refinancing for the fire company.

Following the firemen's meeting, the relief association reported a fire insurance refund of $682 and paid $329 for accident insurance for firemen and $45 for officers' bonds.

Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Helen Haines were Mrs. Kathy Lehman, Mrs. Annie Jacobs, Mrs. Amy Kyle and Mrs. Robert Ness, all former pupils of Mrs. Haines.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rodgers announce the birth of a son at Hanover General Hospital.

RAILWORKERS PLAN

LONDON (AP)—Unio Chief Sydney Green, representing Britain's 474,000 railroad workers, looked over a modernization program which would cut out 70,000 jobs.

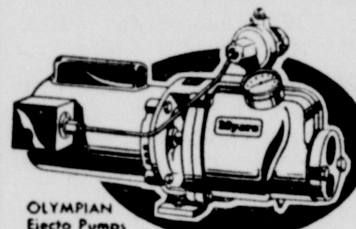

"As things stand now it looks as if there will be a strike," he said.

Greene conferred Thursday with Dr. Richard Beeching, who authored the plan to get the rail system out of the red. Union leaders arranged to meet Monday to set a strike date.

TV Programs Next Week Will Stress Christian And Jewish Observances

TWO oratorios are among the special fare scheduled for the week beginning Sunday honoring religious observances of the Christian and Jewish faiths. NBC will also telecast the Palm Sunday Mass at 11 a.m. from the Holy Name Cathedral in Chicago with Albert Cardinal Meyer, archbishop of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Chicago, officiating.

Sunday's offering of the "Directions '63" series on ABC-TV will be George Frederick Handel's oratorio "Israel in Egypt," called "the passover oratorio." Written in 1738, it is considered by many on a par with the composer's "Messiah." Performing will be a 32-voice chorus under the direction of Earl Wild. William Lewis of the Metropolitan Opera and Elaine Bonazzi, alto star of the Santa Fe Opera Company, are the soloists. The hour-long presentation commences at 2 p.m. EST.

ST. MATTHEW'S PASSION

The second and concluding part of the "St. Matthew Passion" by Johann Sebastian Bach will be telecast in color also on Sunday afternoon (from 3:30-5:30 EST). Performed by the NBC Opera Company, with Alfred Wallenstein conducting, the production will have a 40-member chorus and a 40-piece orchestra said to be approximately the number taking part when the work was first presented in the year 1729.

Also on its Palm Sunday schedule, NBC is presenting for the fourth time its award-winning "Way of the Cross" (2:30-3:30 p.m. EST).

First presented in 1960 it has been seen every year since in this country and has also been shown in England, Switzerland, Spain, Mexico, Argentina, Holland, Hong Kong, Norway, Colombia, Australia, Manila, Ireland, Finland and New Zealand. It will also be seen this year in Germany.

GOOD FRIDAY PROGRAM

Without the use of actors, the documentary retraces the steps of Jesus as He walked toward Golgotha. Alexander Scourby and Norman Rose are heard as narrators.

Jack Paar on his April 12 program (which is Good Friday) will present color films he took during a visit to the Holy Land last summer—most of the footage having been shot from a helicopter loaned to Paar by King Hussein of Jordan. Jim Bishop, author-columnist, will help with the narration and Mahalia Jackson will sing gospel selections.

In an interesting footnote to the religious observances, Wendell Corey, president of the Academy of Motion Pictures Arts and Sciences (and himself the son of a Congregational minister), made known that both the Academy and the American Broadcasting Company had tried to change the date for the Hollywood Oscar presentations since April 8 is the date this year of the Jewish Passover Seder. The change was not possible, however, and the presentation will take place Monday from the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium and will be carried over the combined television and radio facilities of ABC.

TO SING "OSCAR" SONGS

All five Oscar-nominated songs will be sung by Robert Goulet on the April 8 "Oscarcast," 10 p.m. (ABC). The nominated songs are "Days of Wine and Roses," "Foolish Me," "Second Chance," "Tender Is the Night" and "Walk on the Wild Side."

Eddie Fisher will be heard in "a cavalcade of Academy Award-winning songs" and Ethel Merman will do an Irving Berlin medley.

GETS AROUND

Earl Rogers, regular member of the "Sing Along with Mitch" gang, is also a cantor, a teacher and the voice heard in the theme of "Car 54 Where Are You?"

For the past few weeks he's had an extra — and heavy task — preparing the chorus for the NBC Opera Company production of Bach's "St. Matthew Passion."

"FAIR LADY"

Stanley Holloway, who was Eliza Doolittle's father in the record-setting stage presentation of "My Fair Lady" before he became "Our Man Higgins" on ABC-TV, will get to do the film version of the role he created, it is announced by Jack L. Warner, president of Warner Bros., who will personally supervise the transference of the smash hit to film. The "Higgins" of "Fair Lady," Professor . . . that is, will be recreated by Rex Harrison and Audrey Hepburn will portray Eliza.

LAUGH LINES

Some personal Boswell has been following NBC's punny newsmen, Edwin Newman, around and culled these from his latest crop: Flight in space by astronaut Walter Schirra: "Schirrade." Passengers who listen to taxi drivers' radios as they ride around: "a captive audience." The ideological dispute between Russia and Red China: "dogma eat dogma."

M'CORMICK TO STAY IN SOUTH TO HELP ARM

By MIKE RATHET

Mike McCormick's arm has been a mystery for some time, now the 24-year-old Baltimore pitcher has turned detective in an attempt to find himself.

McCormick, who's been a major leaguer since the day he signed a bonus contract with the New York Giants in 1956, was headed today for the Orioles' Rochester farm club in the International League to try and solve some of the mysteries.

Obtained from the Giants in one of the winter's biggest trades, McCormick came to Baltimore along with pitcher Stu Miller and catcher John Orsino in exchange for pitchers Jack Fisher and Billy Hoeft and catcher Jim Coker.

McCormick has been coming along slowly in the Orioles' camp and Manager Billy Hitchcock feels an additional stretch with the minor leaguers under the Florida sun could be just the cure-all McCormick needs.

GAMES RAINED OUT

The announcement of McCormick's first tour of duty with the minor leaguers came on a slack day along the exhibition trail as most clubs were on the move. In addition, the San Francisco-Cleveland and Houston-Kansas City games were rained out.

In the only games played, Cincinnati edged the Chicago White Sox 3-2 at Lynchburg, Va., and the New York Yankees whipped Philadelphia 4-2 at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

The Reds won it with runs in the eighth and ninth innings. An error by shortstop Al Weis and a pinch-hit double by Harry Bright gave the Reds an unearned eighth inning run that snapped a 1-1 tie before they came up with the clincher in the ninth on Ken Walters' run-scoring single.

Mickey Mantle put the Yankees ahead to stay against Philadelphia Art Mahaffey, smashing a two-run double in a three-run third inning uprising that put it out of reach. Mahaffey, trying to work the kinks out of a sore shoulder, worked four innings.

QUEEN TO BE GUIDE

Following in the tradition of Mrs. John F. Kennedy and Princess Grace of Monaco no less a personage than Her Majesty Queen Frederika of Greece will be principal guide on a telecast.

The beautiful queen will describe the Golden Age of Greece and the emergence of Athenian democracy on the first broadcast of "The Roots of Freedom" to be presented on CBS-TV in the fall.

With Eric Sevareid as reporter, Queen Frederika will describe the Acropolis, the Parthenon and other Athens' landmarks of the fifth century, B.C.

GOLF COVERAGE

Forty tons of electronic equipment, worth over half a million dollars was sent by truck to the National Golf Club in Augusta, Ga., to cover the 27th Masters Golf Tournament Saturday, Sunday and possibly Monday, should a playoff be necessary. (CBS-TV April 6, 5-6 p.m., EST; April 7

4-5:30 p.m., EST; and April 8, 5-6 p.m., EST).

"Never before has that little white golf ball received the attention it will get from us this year," is the way Peter Molnar, CBS producer, sees it.

FORMER "OSCAR" WINNERS

Eighteen top stars (mostly in the flesh, a few on film) will be seen on the 35th presentation of "Oscar" statuettes by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

They are Ingrid Berman, George Chakiris, Joan Crawford, Bette Davis, Olivia de Havilland, Audrey Hepburn, Van Heflin, Sophia Loren, Rita Moreno, David Niven, Sir Laurence Olivier, Ginger Rogers, Eva Marie Saint, Maximilian Schell, Simone Signoret, Frank Sinatra, Spencer Tracy, Shelley Winters and Joanne Woodward.

Frank Sinatra, in fact, will be seen throughout the evening, because he is serving as emcee.
